

CHIME Institute Title IX Compliance

In accordance with California Senate Bill 1375 CHIME Institute's Schwarzenegger Community School (CHIME) is required by federal law to comply with Title IX. Title IX prohibits a person, on the basis of sex, from being excluded from participation in, being denied the benefits of, or being subject to discrimination under, any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance.

CHIME's Title IX Compliance Coordinator is the Executive Director Dr. Erin Studer. For any Title IX concerns, questions or complaints he may be contacted at the following:

Phone: 818-346-5100

Title IX Complaints at CHIME follow the process set up by the Universal Complaint procedure established by CHIME Institute. Please, also know that as a parent or student of the school you have rights under the law for Title IX. These rights can be found in the Title IX guide below.

Complaint Process

Students or parents/guardians should report their verbal or written Title IX complaint to the school administrator or Title IX/Bullying Complaint Manager within six months from the date the alleged incident occurred or first obtained knowledge. Complainants have a right to a timely and informal resolution at the school site.

If the complainant is dissatisfied with the school-site or Local District decision, the complainant may file a written Uniform Complaint Procedures \(UCP\) complaint directly with the Educational Equity Compliance Office. This will begin the investigation process which must be completed within 60 days. An appeal of the Educational Equity Compliance Office's findings may be made to the California Department of Education - Office of Equal Opportunity.
